

HEALTH WORKFORCE COUNCIL MEETING

Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences - June 27

Join us for an in-person opportunity to connect, learn, spark ideas, and work together to address the health workforce development needs of Washington.

Planned topics for the day include:

- Greater Yakima-area community and health workforce demographics, diversity, and employer needs,
- Areas of local health workforce education success,
- Reflections from students and recent graduates about their pathway into the health workforce, and
- Supporting behavioral health employers with workforce development.

Participation will be capped at 60 people so please register if you would like to attend.

Date: Thursday, June 27, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Location: Pacific Northwest University of Health Sciences
3200 Inspiration Drive, Yakima, WA 98901
